Letter From the President

Welcome Ladies and Gentlemen to the Thoroughbred Chorus' 62nd Annual Show. We again have a spectacular performance planned for you, including some new songs and new quartets, plus our traditional Christmas portion. We know you look forward to that as much as we do.

We had a very busy year during 2010. In January our esteemed Director Emeritus, Jim Miller, conducted the installation ceremony for our new Board of Directors. Our hard-working Secretary, Joe Uveges, was recognized as Thoroughbred of the year. Also in January we again began publishing "The Starting Gate", our monthly newsletter made available on our website.

We also held "Thoroughbred University", an annual workshop to review the musical craft involved in creating barbershop harmony. Our hard work and attention to detail regarding matching vowel targets and balancing chords paid off, as we won the "Most Improved Chorus" award at the 2010 Cardinal District Fall Convention and Contests.

February again saw quartets of tuxedo clad Thoroughbreds delivering a rose and card and a Singing Valentine throughout the metropolitan area. We also debuted our new royal blue chorus shirts at a sing out at the Bingo Hall we sponsor for fundraising. Additionally we sang at various local fish fry events, where we enjoyed great food while helping to expand community awareness, involvement and support of barbershop harmony.

In May we were honored to perform for the National Guard Adjutants General Association's annual dinner, held this year in the Churchill Down Museum. We also returned to sing at the Victorian Chautauqua held at the Howard Steamboat Museum in Jeffersonville, IN. On the Memorial Day weekend we sang patriotic songs and held a dedication ceremony for our Gallopalooza horse "Lincoln" at the Jeffersontown Veterans Memorial Park. "Lincoln" commemorates the Lincoln Bicentennial, and this wonderful work of art is now proudly displayed in a rose garden in front of Jim Miller Hall, our rehearsal hall in JTown.

In June we sang for the Fern Creek/Highview Ministries at Cedar Creek Baptist Church. In July one of our young members participated in the annual Harmony Explosion Camp for Youths in Marion, IN where high school boys and girls had a lot of fun and learned more about singing barbershop harmony. In August we sent some of our men to Harmony University, an annual week-long conference featuring all kinds of musical seminars and craft sessions. We also continued our tradition of performing at the Kentucky State Fair ceremonies.

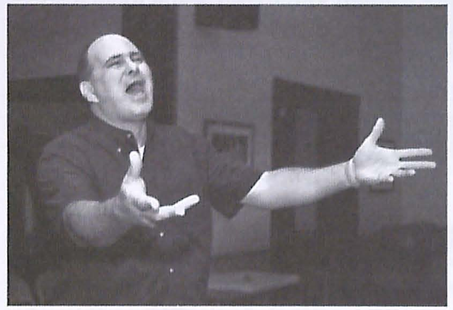

Special thanks to all the volunteers who made this show possible, especially our wives and significant others who support us in our love of music. Finally, thank you to all the members of The Thoroughbred Chorus who have worked so hard to make the show a success.

Ladies and Gentlemen, thank you for being a part of our 62nd Holiday Celebration. Merry Christmas, Happy Holidays, and we hope you enjoy the show!

Ron Brumleve
President

Dave Duncan, Music Director

When you're growing up, and let's say you're singing in a church choir or your high school choir, or even in a college choir, it's easy to forget how valuable the experience is to your life. Every one of the men you'll see on stage today remembers the value of singing. Countless (well, maybe countable but never enough…) hours are spent learning and rehearsing the music you hear. You might expect me to say that they do it all for you, the audience. That's not the whole story though. They, we, DO do it for you but we do it for ourselves too.

Music is personal sharing on a much grander than normal scale. We do this because we choose to share ourselves and our music with you and with each other. There is no feeling like the one you get when you "get it right", when you touch another person with the sound of your voice, when you know you've moved an audience from their position of rest to respond in some way or another to your effort.

Today, everything we do will be aimed at moving you (and us too) off the resting place, out of the comfort zone and to someplace where any and everything is possible. We don't want you to sit and listen; we want to excite you and entertain you and leave you with the feeling that you would really have missed something if you hadn't been with us.

If we don't succeed, you'll definitely tell us about it and we'll work even harder for the next opportunity to be better.

If we do succeed, we'll all know (but you can tell us anyway!).

Thanks for coming and hang on for the ride!

Reed Yadon is a Louisville native, and is returning for the fourth year as emcee of the Thoroughbreds' Annual Show.
Reed is a meteorologist and helicopter pilot for WHAS 11, forecasting weather for over 25 years in Louisville. With the exception of college and the Army, Louisville has been home. Don't be surprised if you think you've heard his voice in other places. He records flight arrival and departure announcements heard in airports around the world. Reed's television work has been recognized with numerous national awards including two Emmy's. We appreciate Reed's time, talents and friendship with the Thoroughbreds!
